

I oppose this collection for the Archdiocese of Military Services. A nationwide collection for AMS sends a message to American Catholics that the Catholic Church condones America's current military activity and post-9-11 wars.

Condonation (n): the overlooking or implied forgiving of an offense.

Church is no place to glorify the ideals of the professional military class, which run contrary to most, if not all, Christian beliefs and teachings, including Christian Just War theory.

Militarism (n.): 1) the belief or desire that a country should maintain a strong military and be prepared to use it aggressively to defend or promote national interests; 2) the tendency to subordinate all other interests to those of the military.

Today, in a spirit of peace, I offer my dissent.

I oppose this collection for the Archdiocese of Military Services. A nationwide collection for AMS sends a message to American Catholics that the Catholic Church condones America's current military activity and post-9-11 wars.

Condonation (n): the overlooking or implied forgiving of an offense.

Church is no place to glorify the ideals of the professional military class, which run contrary to most, if not all, Christian beliefs and teachings, including Christian Just War theory.

Militarism (n.): 1) the belief or desire that a country should maintain a strong military and be prepared to use it aggressively to defend or promote national interests; 2) the tendency to subordinate all other interests to those of the military.

Today, in a spirit of peace, I offer my dissent.

I oppose this collection for the Archdiocese of Military Services. A nationwide collection for AMS sends a message to American Catholics that the Catholic Church condones America's current military activity and post-9-11 wars.

Condonation (n): the overlooking or implied forgiving of an offense.

Church is no place to glorify the ideals of the professional military class, which run contrary to most, if not all, Christian beliefs and teachings, including Christian Just War theory.

Militarism (n.): 1) the belief or desire that a country should maintain a strong military and be prepared to use it aggressively to defend or promote national interests; 2) the tendency to subordinate all other interests to those of the military.

Today, in a spirit of peace, I offer my dissent.

I oppose this collection for the Archdiocese of Military Services. A nationwide collection for AMS sends a message to American Catholics that the Catholic Church condones America's current military activity and post-9-11 wars.

Condonation (n): the overlooking or implied forgiving of an offense.

Church is no place to glorify the ideals of the professional military class, which run contrary to most, if not all, Christian beliefs and teachings, including Christian Just War theory.

Militarism (n.): 1) the belief or desire that a country should maintain a strong military and be prepared to use it aggressively to defend or promote national interests; 2) the tendency to subordinate all other interests to those of the military.

Today, in a spirit of peace, I offer my dissent.